

Audrey M. Airut Murphy

Senior Associate

amurphy@kbmlawyers.com

direct: (206) 623-8861

Bio

Audrey is a senior associate at Keating, Bucklin & McCormack. Prior to joining the firm full time, she worked as a law clerk while finishing her final year of law school at the University of Washington School of Law.

During law school, Audrey worked as Chief Managing Editor of Washington Law Review, earned a CALI award in Persuasive Writing, and placed as a semifinalist in the 2018 Hillis Clark Martin & Peterson 1L Appellate Advocacy Competition. Before law school, Audrey graduated cum laude from the University of Washington with honors. While earning her degrees, Audrey worked as a summer associate and interned with other Pacific Northwest law firms and the King County Prosecutor's Office. In her free time, Audrey enjoys reading novels, sailing, and skiing.

Education, Recognition, and Honors

- Washington Defense Trial Lawyers 2021 Outstanding Litigation Associate of the Year
- University of Washington, Seattle—B.A. Law, Societies, & Justice with Honors; French, Cum Laude, 2017
- University of Washington School of Law—J.D., 2020
- Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society
- 2018 Hillis Clark Martin & Peterson 1L Appellate Advocacy Competition, Semifinalist
- CALI Award in Persuasive Writing at the University of Washington School of Law
- Chief Managing Editor, Washington Law Review